THE CROSS ROADS

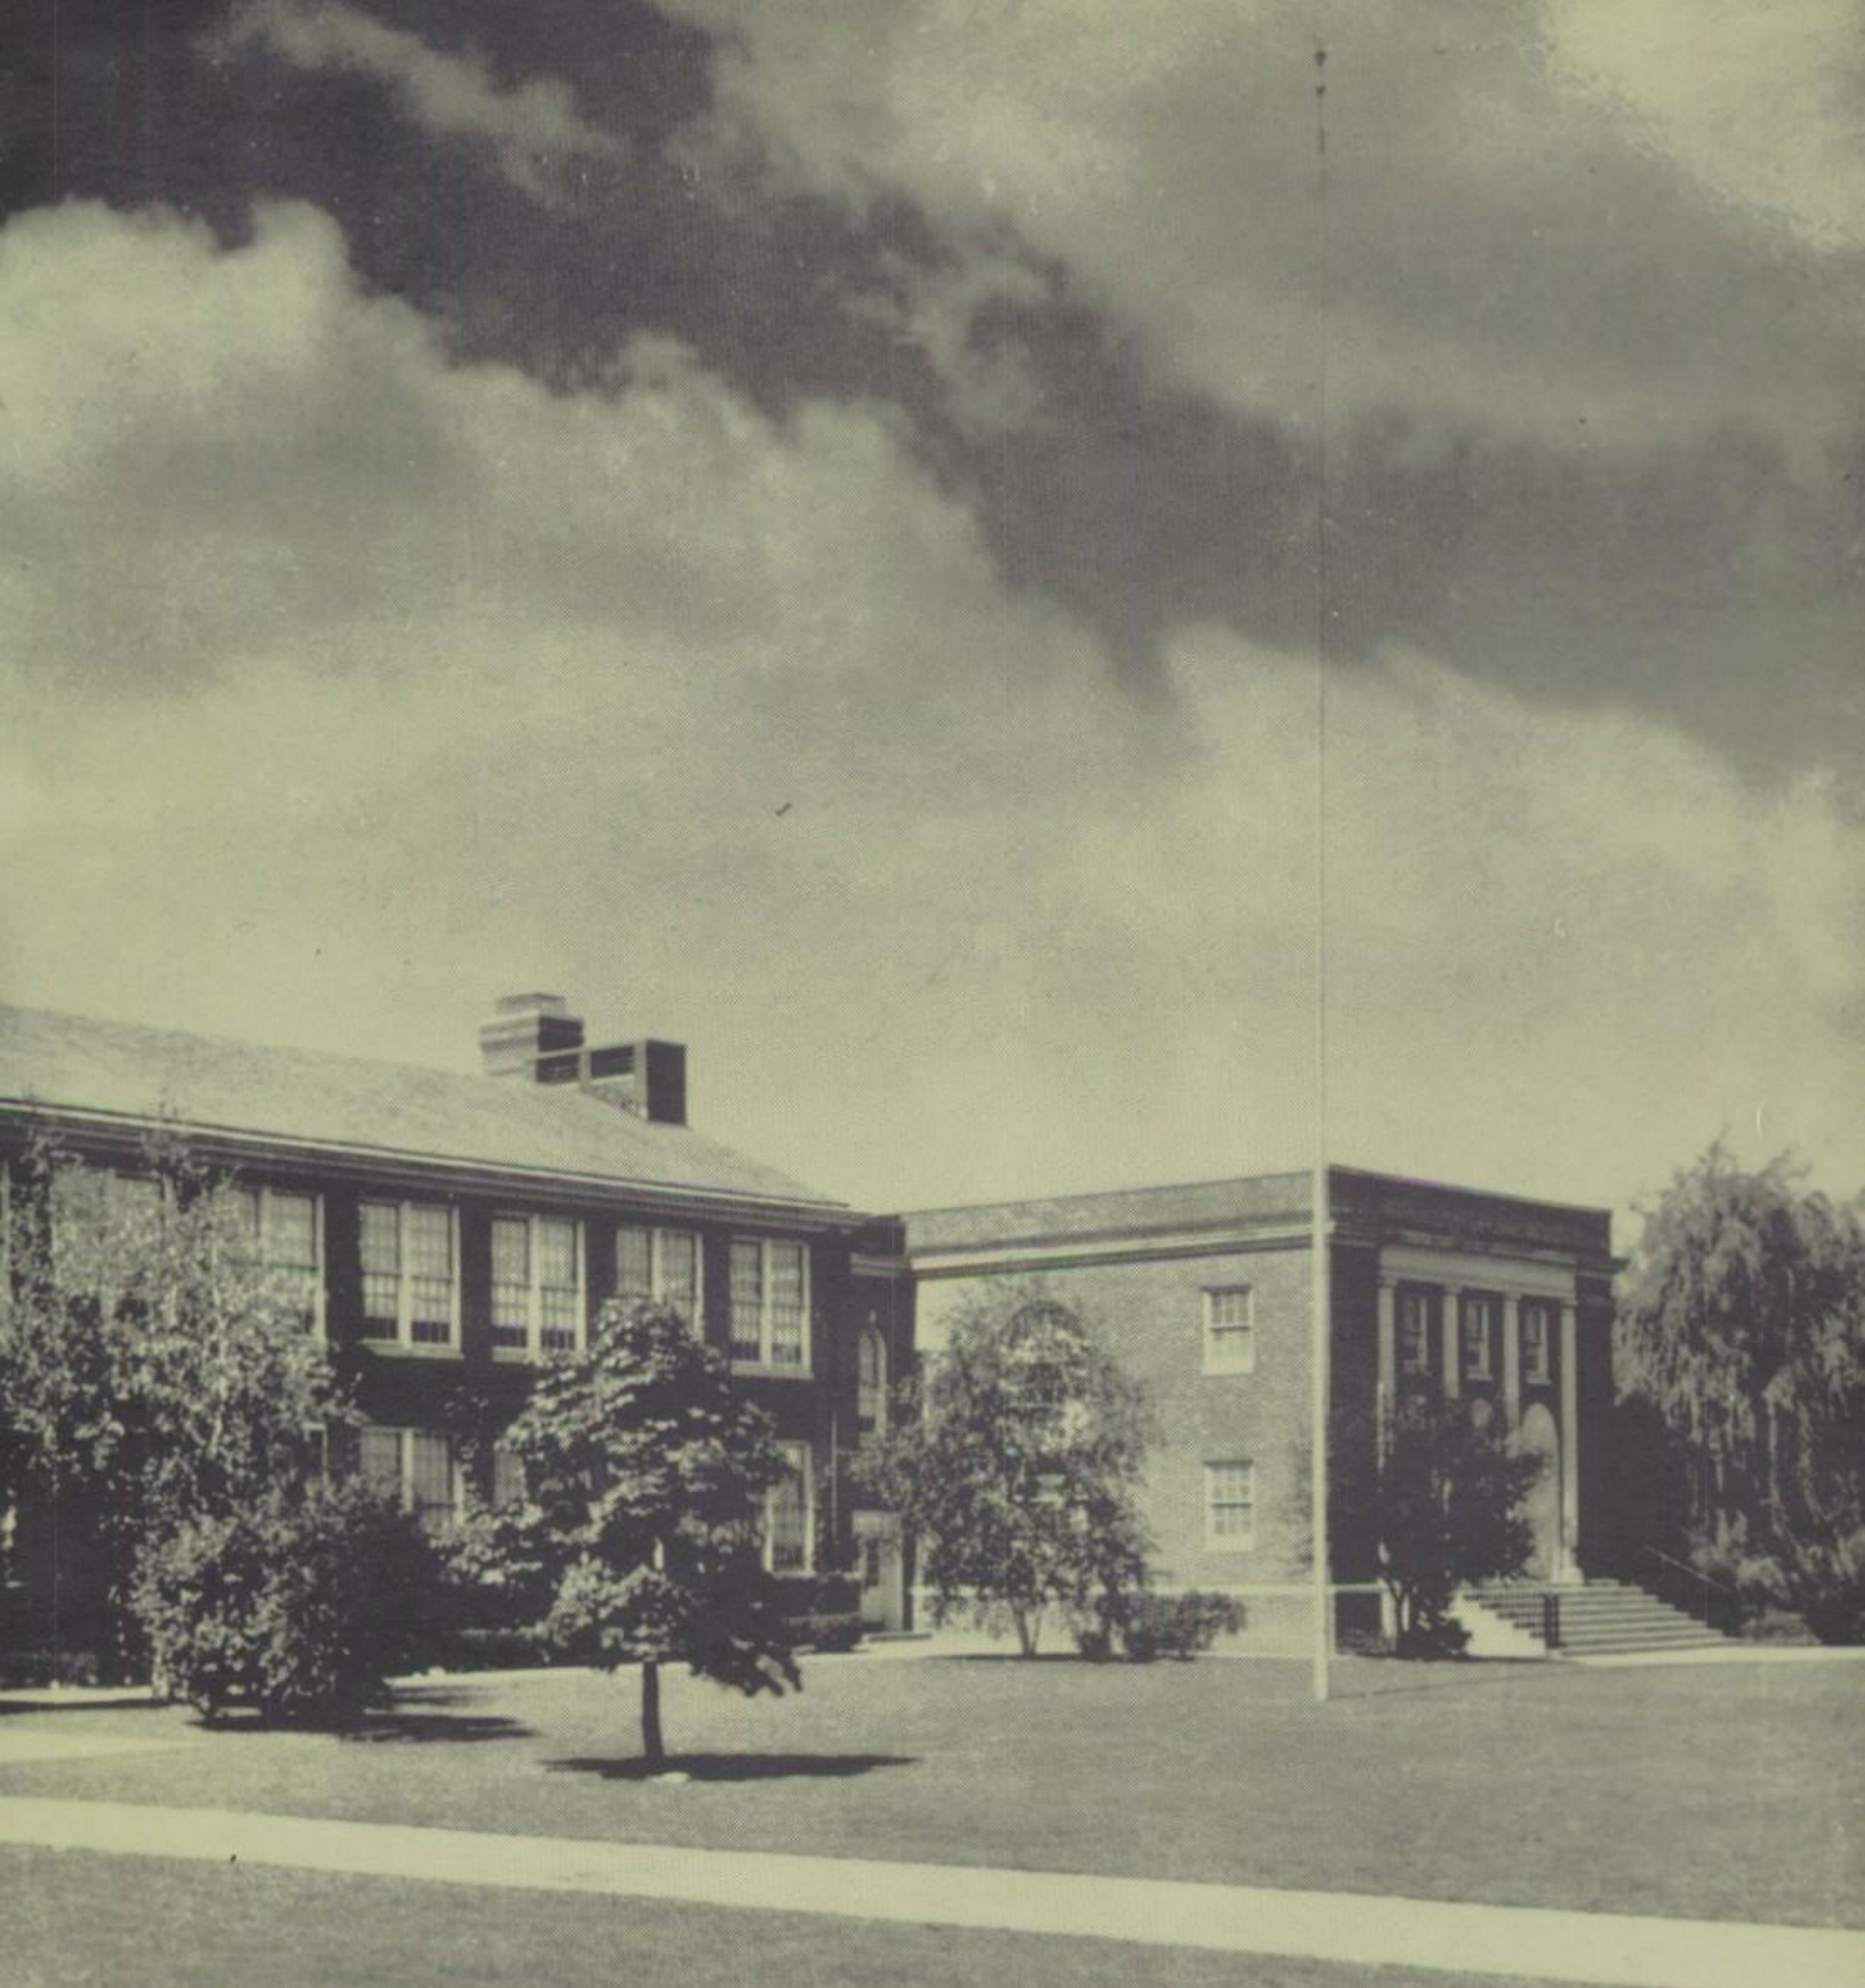

Washington and Clinton Avenues in Pre-Revolutionary Days

AT THE time of the American Revolution the town of Bergenfield was known as Schraalenburgh, which is derived from the Dutch, and means a barren knoll or hill. The oldest road in town was the Schraalenburg Road, once called King's Highway and now Washington Avenue. On Schraalenburgh Road stood the old stone house (pictured above) which was then used as a tavern. About the year 1907 the old stone house was demolished, and a frame dwelling house was erected on the site a little to the southwest of the intersecting roads. In 1923 the property was acquired by the Bergenfield Board of Education and the house was moved in order to provide for the erection of the Harding School which, with recent additions, has become our junior-senior high school building.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT CONGRESS

THE Bergenfield High School Student Congress was organized to promote harmonious relations among students, to co-ordinate and promote student activity and to encourage greater participation on the part of the students, to advance all causes which will contribute to the best interest of our school, and to encourage the practice of good citizenship. Its accomplishments include the sponsoring of an annual student scholarship of two hundred dollars, promotion of the school treasure chest, sponsoring the annual Christmas pageant, sponsoring an annual sports dance, and assisting in the promotion of Career Day. Its officers for the school year of 1950-1951 are: president, William Hargreaves; vice president, Richard Drakeford; secretary, Joan Hirtes; treasurer, Donald Spears. The faculty sponsor is Mr. R. E. Hunter.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT CONGRESS

IN order that there may be a better understanding of the duties and responsibilities incurred in promoting a student participation program in the school, the class, homeroom, and organizational presidents of the Junior High meet as a group called the Junior Student Congress.

As representatives of their respective groups, the members work together with the administration, faculty, and students to promote school activities.

B-HIVE

AS B-Hive went to press in October, it was the ninth year that this publication has served to inform, instruct and entertain the student body. Timely articles, thought provoking editorials, and chatter columns help B-Hive to fulfill these functions.

B-Hive is put out by the Journalism I class and an extra-curricular group. The paper embodies the technical "know-how" and literary ability acquired by these groups.

Last year B-Hive was awarded a second place certificate by the National Scholastic Press Association of which it is a member.

Barbara Sullivan '51 is this year's editor. The sponsor is Mr. John Curry. Seniors listed in the mast head are: Allan Adeeb, Marilyn Barteld, Marion Bell, Donald Kozak, Joseph Minafri, Marie Rosito, and Joseph Sacchi.

HONEY COMB

"THE Honey Comb" is a magazine-style newspaper published six times a year. The staff studies correct journalistic practices and techniques, stimulates creative writing among the junior high school students, and, in the paper, provides an outlet for their ideas. Experience is given staff members in circulation and merchandising.

All typing and mimeographing, and the taking, developing, and printing of pictures is done by staff members.

The business staff is in charge of the yearly subscriptions, cash sales and distribution. The financial success of the magazine depends upon this department.

The editor is Barbara Nestor; the sponsors, Mrs. Elizabeth Fox and Mrs. Kathleen Hansen.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

THIS year's assembly programs have been very educational as well as enjoyable and entertaining. Some of the programs that were remembered were the speed typist, also Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Wood, who entertained us by singing, and Lieutenant James C. Whitaker, who told of his experiences in the last war.

This year's assembly committee is made up of: Nancy Levinson; secretary, Antonia Celeste; Jeanette Alvarez, Patricia McCormack, Ruthanne Steiner, Mary Shanahan, Janet Koenig, and Anthony Notorangelo. The sponsor is Miss Louise Frownfelter.

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

AT the weekly meetings the Junior Assembly Committee planned many interesting programs. Although professional talent was secured for a few assemblies, the majority of the programs were student productions under direction of faculty members. Several programs were in the nature of quiz shows. Musical programs and plays were included. One assembly featured the B. H. S. twirlers and band.

The officers include: Marjorie Brand, president; William Libonati, vice president; Pat O'Brien, secretary; Miss Louise Frownfelter, sponsor.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

THE Traffic Squad is composed of students of only the senior class. They are familiar with the rules and regulations of traffic in B. H. S. because they are seniors. Any senior who has passing grades in all subjects and a good record in citizenship is eligible.

The main purposes of the Traffic Squad are: to promote safety, to maintain order, and to see that traffic moves along smoothly when classes are passing.

The officers are: president, Joan Bendell, vice president, Patrick Gowney; secretary, Laura Friberg; and treasurer, Richard Menhnick; sponsor, Mr. William Benedon.

USHER STAFF

The Usher Staff ably takes care of all evening and afternoon performances given by the Bergenfield High School. Joan Hirtes is the chairman and Miss Shirley Ayres, the sponsor.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

THE Library Council is organized to assist the librarian in making the resources of the library available to students and faculty.

Members serve at the desk, prepare overdue notices, keep books in order, prepare books and magazines for circulation, mend books, prepare displays, and help publish "Bookworms".

The officers of the Library Council are: president, Mary Ann Del Nobile; secretary-treasurer, Barbara Davison. The editor of "Bookworms" is Richard Curran. Miss Arlene Adam is the faculty sponsor.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE

THE Reception Committee extends to the public the hospitality of the school on Parents' Night. Members of the committee put the names of the teachers on the doors, place chairs in the halls, and escort guests to the rooms which they wish to visit.

The officers are: president, Jean Nober; vice president, Gail Lubrano; secretary, Astrid Johnson; treasurer, Valerie Valcourt; faculty sponsor, Miss Nellie Dolan.

ARTS

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

"THE Home the Star Shone On" by Esther C. Averill was sponsored by the Senior High School Student Congress. It depicted with simplicity and beauty the scene at Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the King. After the adoration scene, the A Cappella Choir concluded the program with the traditional, impressive Candlelight Recessional. The cast included: Martin Rogers, Joyce Brown, Wilma Nelson, Richard Curran, Barbara Cook, Edward Knudsen, George Scanlon, Carl Peraino, and Jane Duckworth, directed by Miss Louise Frownfelter.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

THE A Cappella Choir is one of the most active musical organizations in the school. Our purpose is to give the members opportunity to sing in four and eight part harmony.

We sang for the Christmas Pageant again this year and went caroling in the halls. We expect to take part in the school festival and in the Bergen County Choral Festival in the spring.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND

THIS year the band program has instituted several major changes. Starting with the opening football game, the band presented a new appearance, thirty-six musicians neatly uniformed in their "blazers". After performing at every game, the band participated in an exhibition of high school bands held in the Teaneck Armory. It also had an opportunity to demonstrate its ability at the Memorial Day Parade. In order to give students broader experience, the Concert band has rehearsed several times each week. The officers are: president, Max Mittelhammer; secretary, Charles Dreyer; treasurer, Pat Growney; librarian, Janet Tepper; director, Mr. Bernard Baggs.

HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

OUR 36-piece orchestra is always in readiness to perform at assemblies and other programs requiring concert instrumental music. This year audiences heard a new repertoire at the senior play, the Christmas Pageant, and assemblies which featured orchestral selections. Performances at the operetta and our annual Music Festival provided special motivations for the orchestra to study advanced instrumental literature. Educationally, the orchestra activity fosters and encourages the development of high school string musicians. The officers are: president, Charles Dreyer; equipment manager, Max Mittelhammer; librarian, Ray Rosenstein; director, Mr. Bernard Baggs.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

THE Boys' Glee Club is composed mainly of some of the advanced singers from the tenth through twelfth grades. This year there are also several boys from the eighth and ninth grades helping out in the first tenor section.

Our purpose is to train our members to sing in balanced four-part harmony.

The Glee Club will sing in our annual music festival and for some of the assemblies. The officers are: president, Emil Schneider; vice president, Patricia Gowney; secretary, William Lindberg; treasurer, William Huth; sponsor, Miss Martha Wasson.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

THE Girls' Glee Club is an organization for advanced singers and is composed of fifty-three girls. These girls are chosen from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. Under the leadership of Miss Wasson they have the experience of singing three-party harmony in a balanced group.

This spring the club has been asked to sing for the Women's Club. They will also take part in our Music Festival and sing for the assembly.

The officers are: president, Ruth Haab; vice president, Carol Johnson; secretary, Patricia McCormack; treasurer, Laura Friberg; librarians, Carolee Laetzo, Ruth Gallagher, and Rosalinda Wepf.

NINTH GRADE CHOIR

THE ninth grade Choir is a new group organized this year to give some more advanced junior high school singers experience in soprano, alto, and baritone harmony.

The choir has one rehearsal a week. It expects to sing for our school festival and the ninth grade commencement. Some of the members will participate in the Bergen County Music Festival.

NINTH GRADE BOYS' CHORUS

THESE ninth grade boys have taken the first step toward qualifying for Boys' Glee Club and A Cappella Choir. For the present they are learning how to harmonize just for fun.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

THREE one-act plays replaced the traditional junior play. They were: "Caleb Stone's Death Watch", "Neighbors", and "Enter the Hero", the first two of which had juniors as players.

"Caleb Stone's Death Watch" was a story about a family's reaction to the expected death of Caleb Stone, a miserly old man. All hoped that he would die, so that they could get his money.

Unknown to the family, the dying Caleb had a conversation with two spirits, who, when alive, used to be in his employ. The little men decided that Caleb was a changed man and permitted him to live. The play ended with the family's startling reaction to the fact that Caleb Stone was going to live!

The cast included: Caleb Stone, Ronald Venezia; Carrie Stone (his sister), Wilma Nelson; Antoinette (his daughter), Myra Holtzman; Henry (his son-in-law), Robert Harvie; Tom (his son), Bill Lindberg; Toni (his grand daughter), Jane Lieberman; Nurse, Laura Friberg; Doctor, Chris Curran; Jim, Emil Schneider; Fred, Richard Menhinick; Prompter, Barbara Wullshleger; Director, Miss Claire Schellhase.

"NEIGHBORS" was a play about a group of people living in a small town. It showed how the coming of a small boy to the community changed these self-centered individuals into a happy group wanting to help others.

The cast included: Barbara Cook, Connie Evans, Lois Roscher, Mary Ellen Williams, also Edward Arguello, Ronald Glazer, Lois Marino, and Janet Pratt with Miss Claire Shellhase as director.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"THE THIRTEENTH CHAIR"

by Bayard Veiller

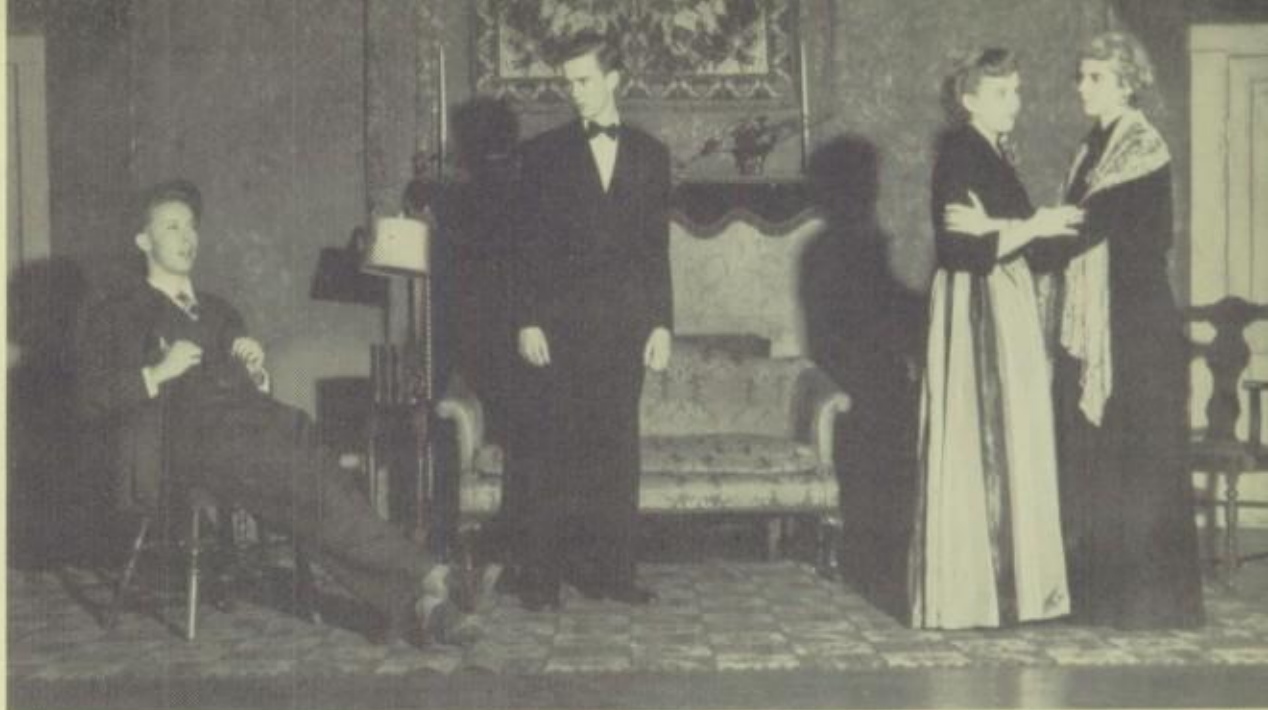

AN attempt at a type of play new in B. H. S. proved to be an acclaimed success.

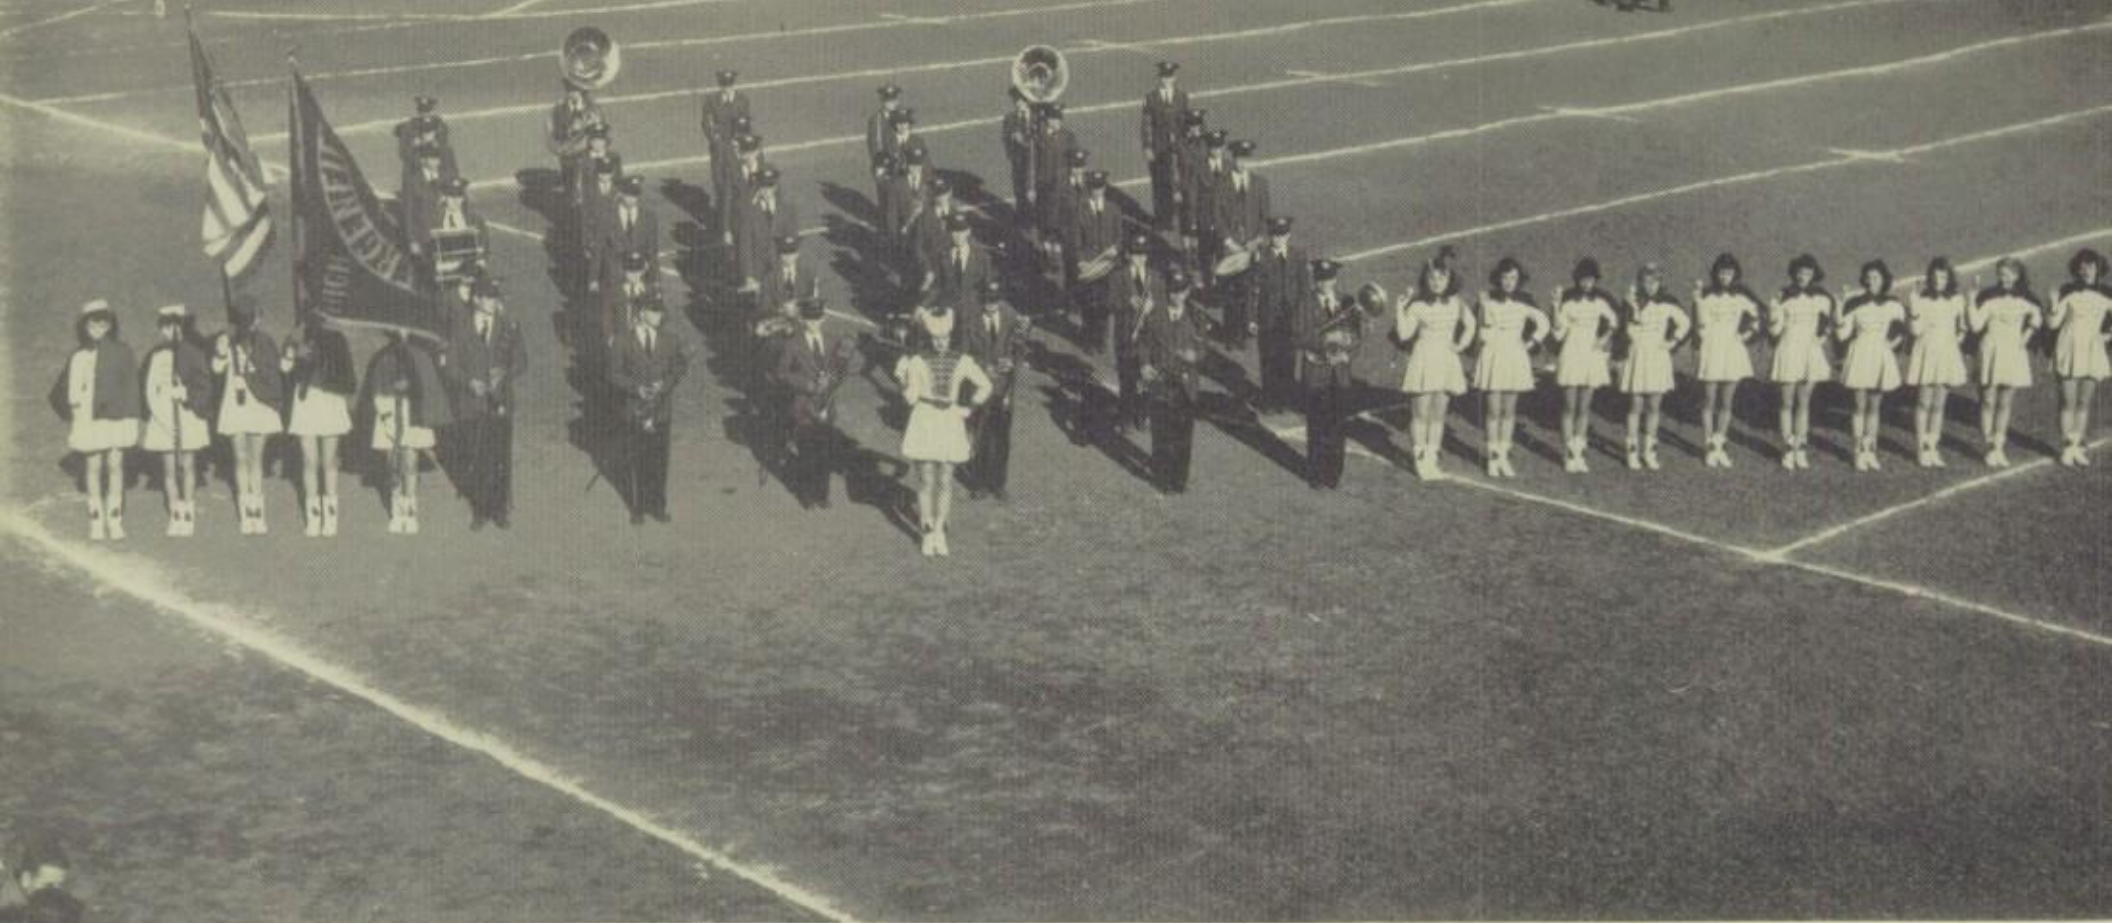

A mystery dealing with the murder of an important guest, Mr. Wales, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby was the plot of "The Thirteenth Chair". Many people, present at the seance conducted by Madame La Grange, were drawn under the suspicious eye of Inspector Donahue.

An unexpected ending brought the play to a conclusion which left the audience with a feeling of satisfaction.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

THE Varsity Cheerleaders are the teams' loyal supporters and can always be found cheering our Mighty Mites, whether winning or losing.

The Varsity Cheerleaders not only try to arouse the spirit of the crowd at the football and basketball games, but also organize pep rallies and pep assemblies to help the morale of the team.

Always neat and peppy, the girls can be seen at the games in their attractive red and white football uniforms or in their black and white basketball uniforms which the girls design themselves every year.

THE Junior Varsity squad is the nucleus of the varsity. These girls must have at least one year of J. V. to gain experience and they do this by cheering at all J. V. football and basketball games. If a girl proves capable, she is then elected to the varsity squad.

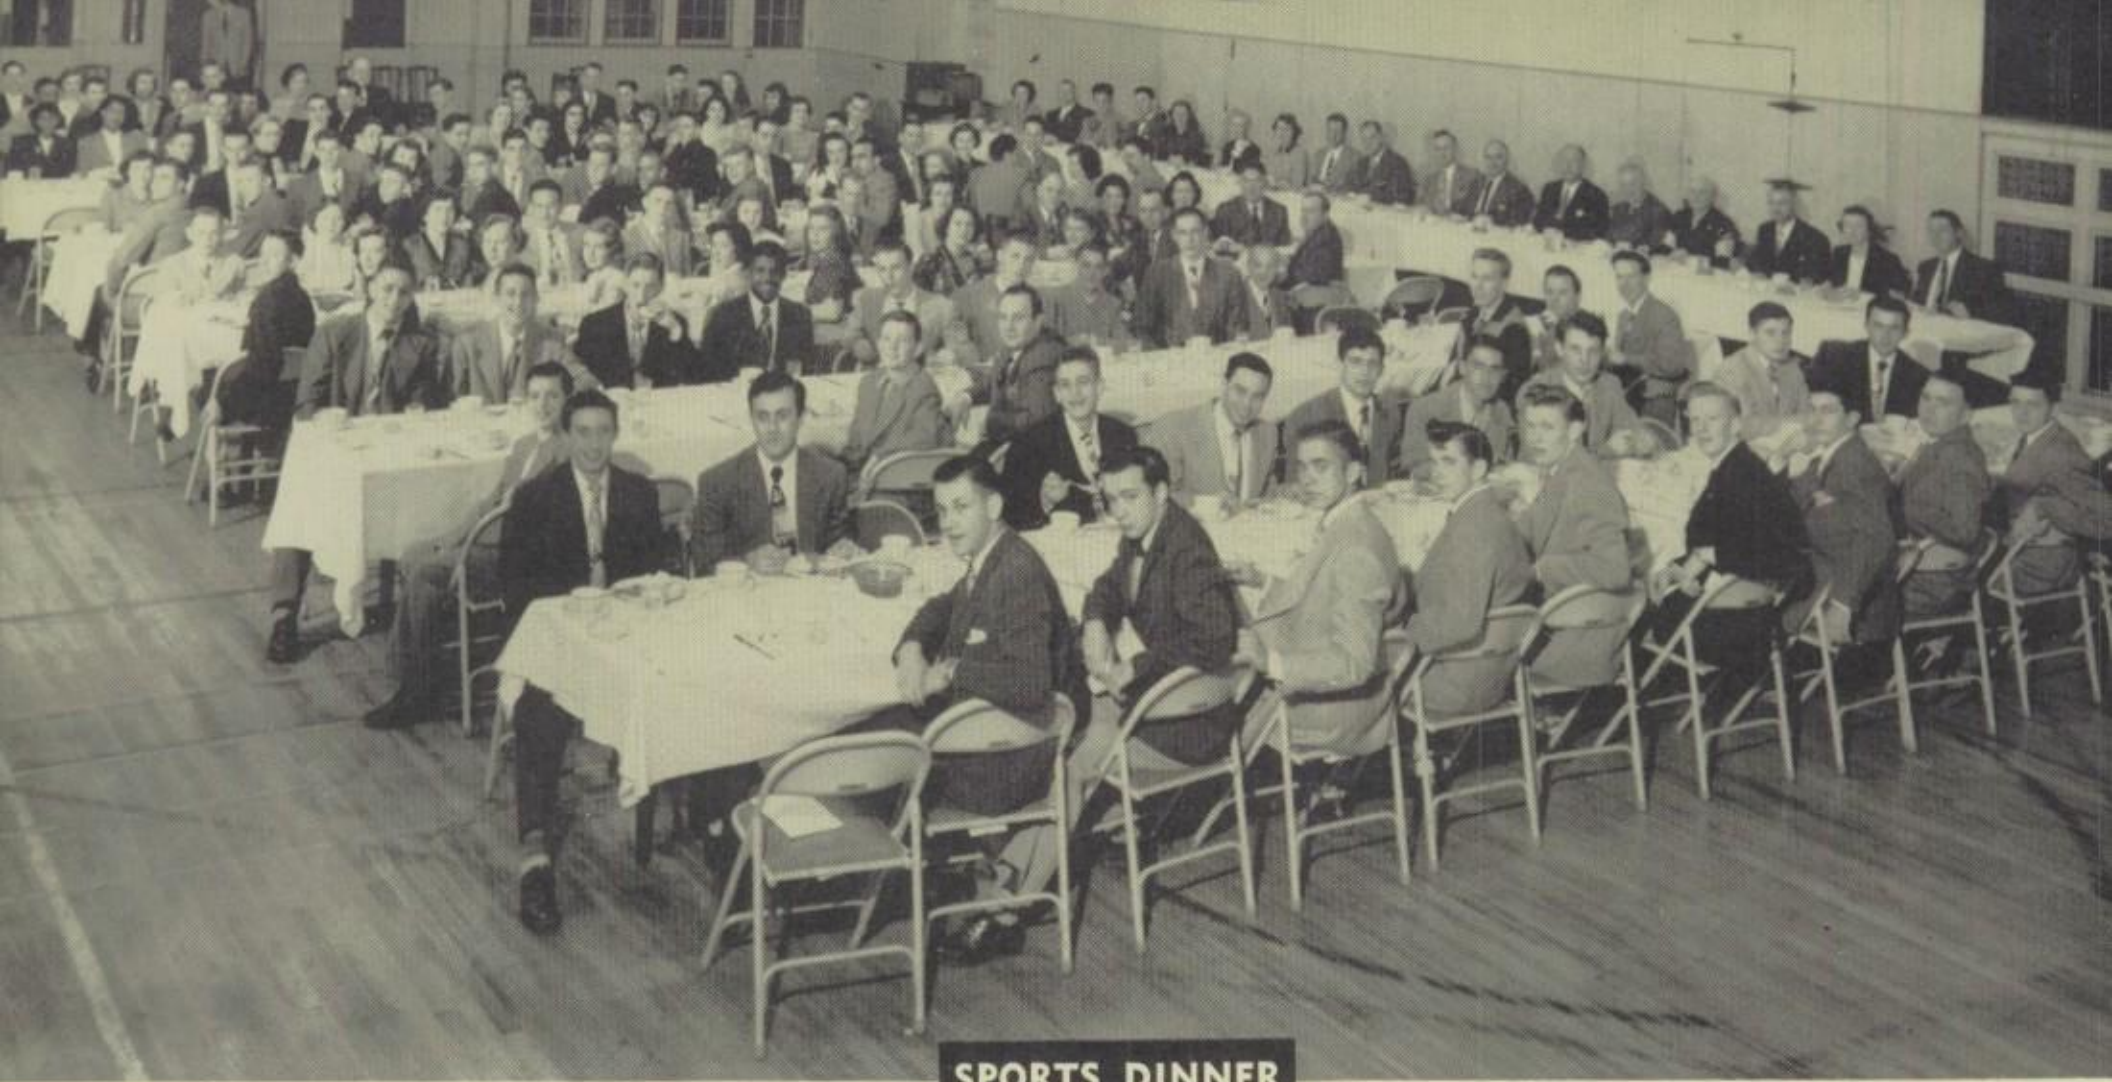

The present squad consists of: Arlene Allgor, Kathy Bell, Regina Evans, Jane Flannery, Barbara Jeslinek, Marion Keehn and Janet Koenig.

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

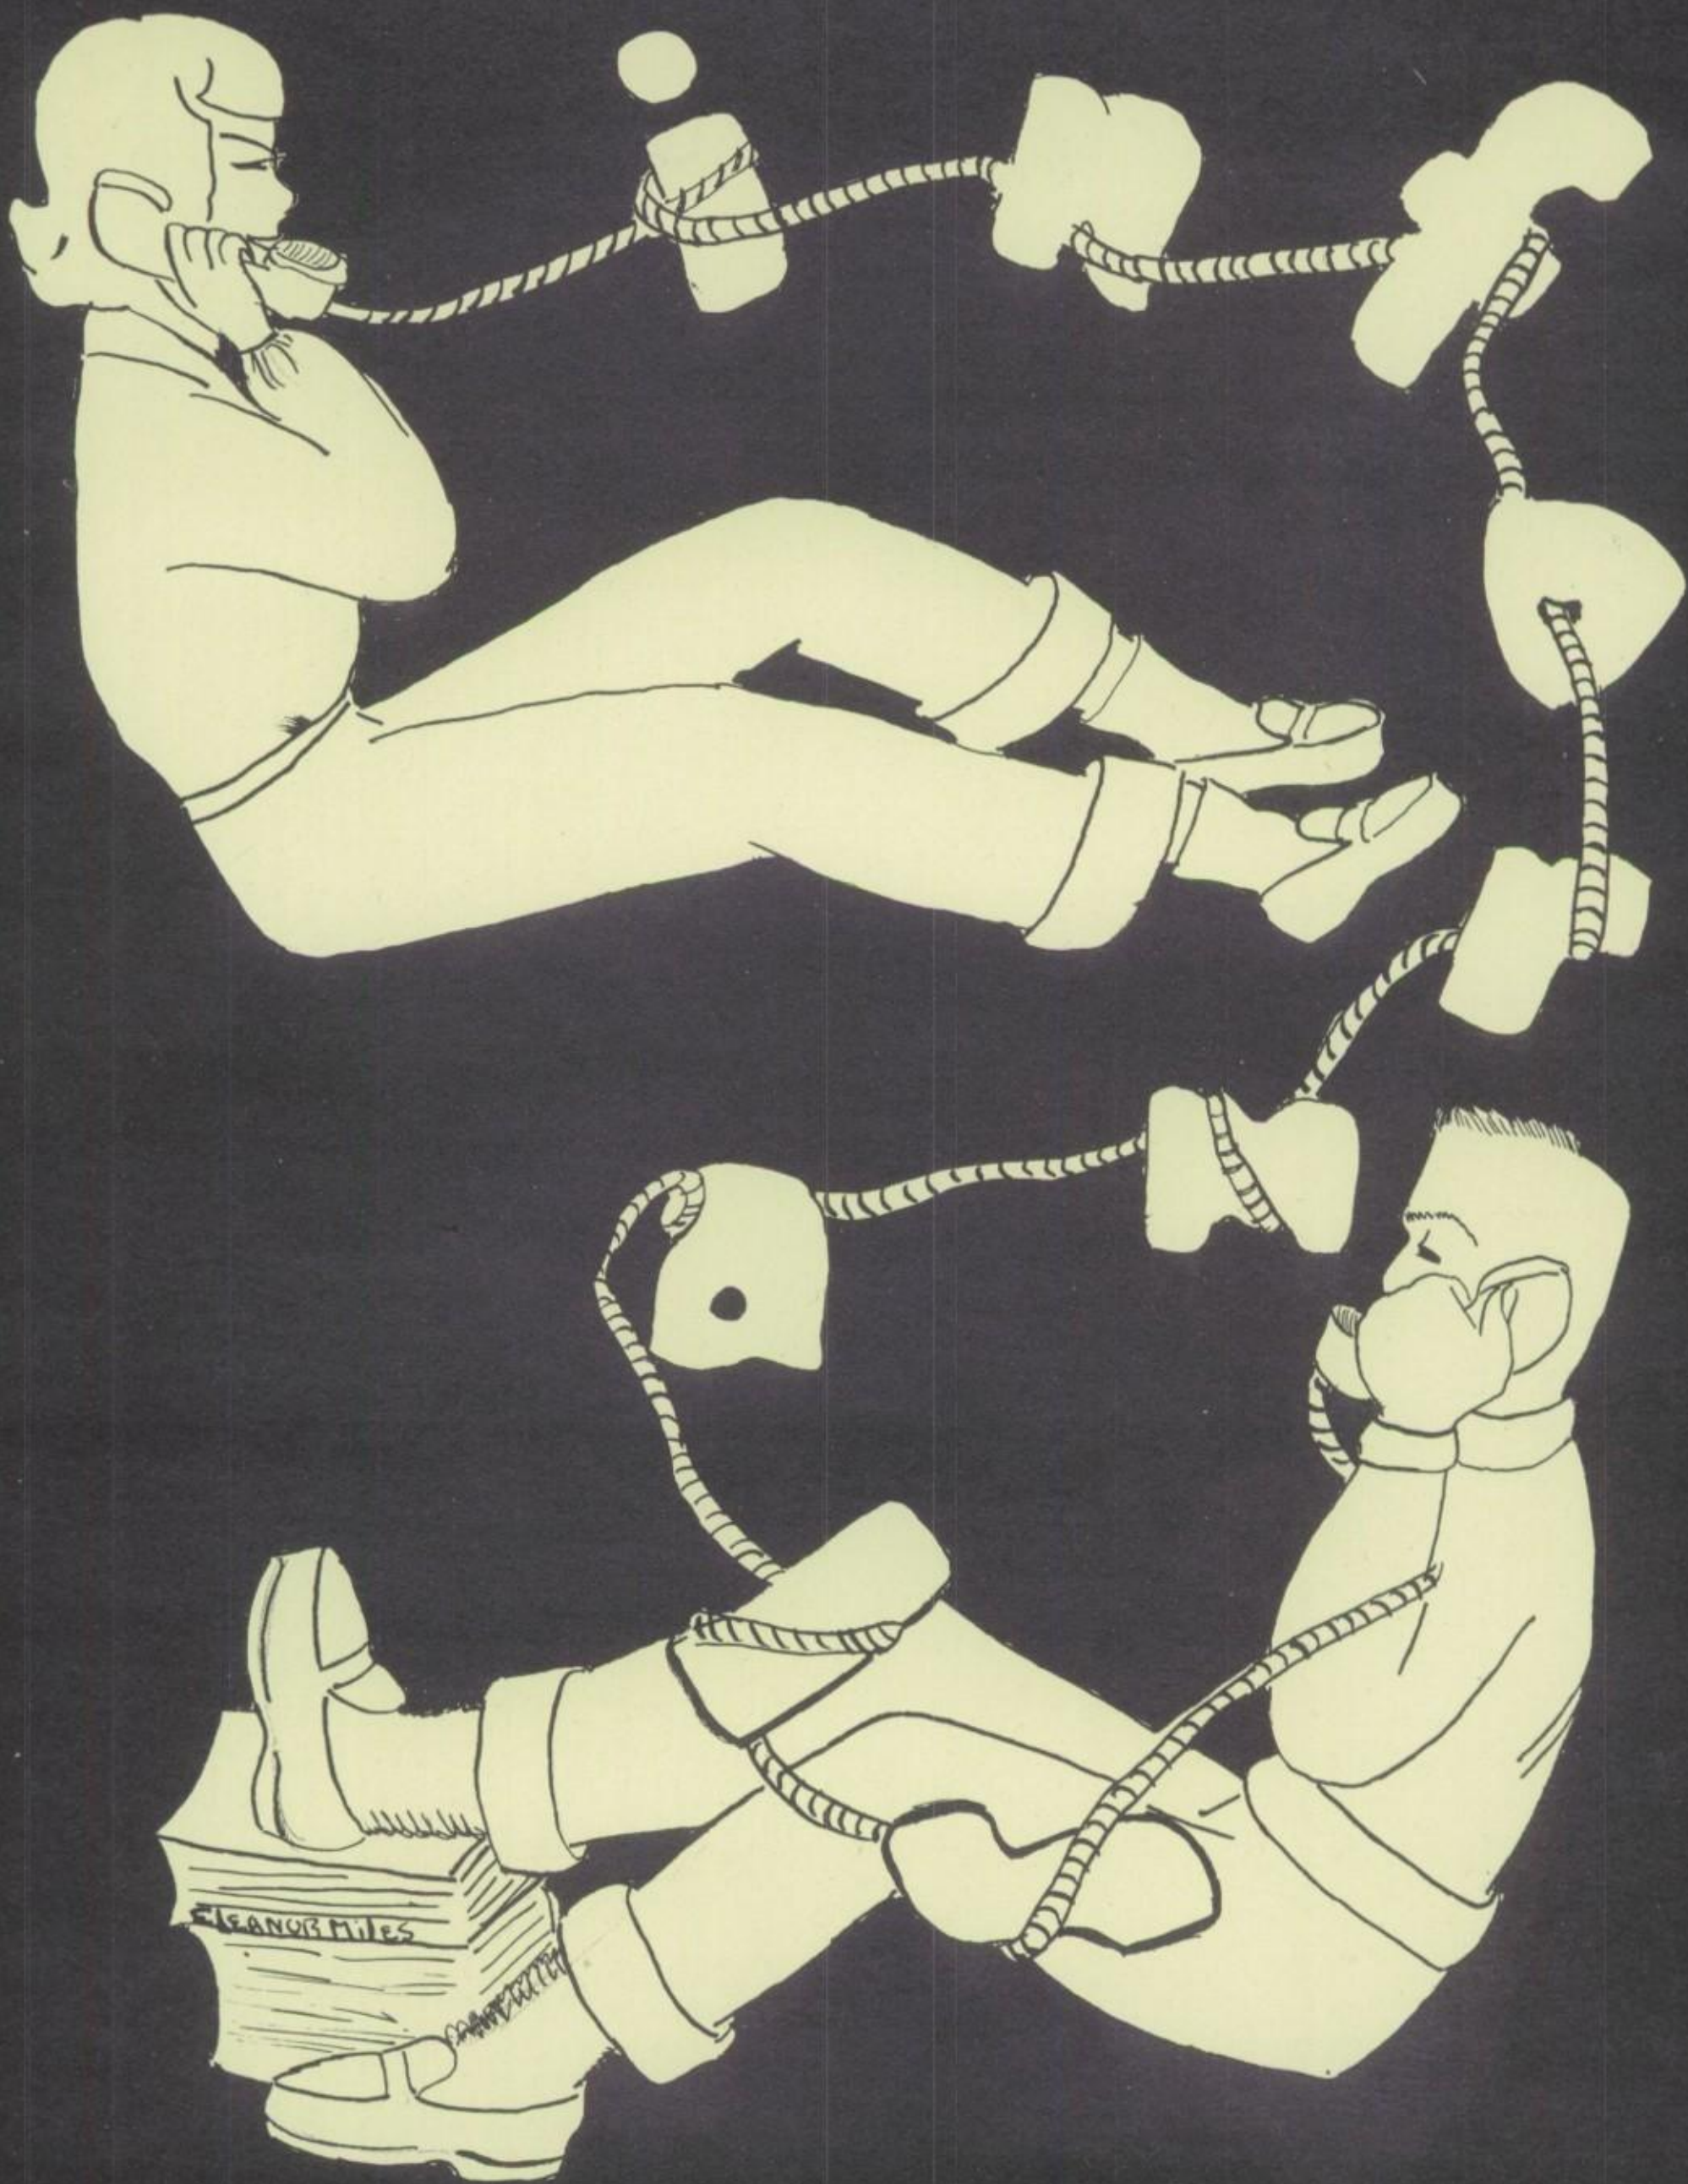

THE purpose of intramurals is to give any girl who wishes it a chance to participate in after-school sports and an opportunity to earn a "B". Soccer, volleyball, basketball, ping-pong, badminton, and baseball are offered. An outstanding list is posted after each sport and a girl who makes four of these lists is eligible for a "B". If she has been outstanding for several years, she will be worthy of another award, a pin or a chain.

SENIOR

CLASS MEMORIES

THE bright, golden days of September 1947 found a new group of eager freshmen on B. H. S.'s doorstep. Our first taste of high school activity was the Spring Dance which we so proudly sponsored. The year sped quickly by and our biggest thrill came on a clear, sunny day in June when we steamed happily up the Hudson. Remember how sunburned we all were!! Junior High Graduation found us singing "Now the Day is O-o-ver-er" and applauding our president Johnny Drakeford.

The next fall we were sophomores. It was a good feeling no longer to be the "babies" of the high school. Those senior assemblies were really great! We could almost see the stage from our seats on Washington Avenue! Our Fall Dance and April Showers Dance were our social events of the year.

Juniors!—one word into which was packed fun, excitement, activity, and plenty of hard work. An innovation in our junior year was the performance of three one-act plays which took the place of the annual Junior Class play. Our greatest thrill was the presentation of our sensational variety show "This Is What Killed Vaudeville". Our "Shirt Tail Prom" was the first of its kind to be given at B. H. S. but the traditional Junior-Senior Prom that soft and starry May night was, of course, a much greater event.

Seniors—at last !!! Our exciting senior year got off to a flying start with our simply terrific football team. We cheered madly from amid the Darlene bars, hot dogs and root beer. Bob Harvie was elected president and he did a fine job despite the fact that he was murdered in the first act of "The Thirteenth Chair". The Christmas Dance was a festive, holiday affair with twin Christmas trees—one aglow in the court yard and the other adorning the dance floor.

We worked very hard selling Christmas cards but it was worth it, for remember that wonderful day in late January when we heard, "We have enough money for our yearbooks! We have more than any Senior Class ever had!!!" Because of our surplus we were able to choose a new cover for our familiar "Crossroads" in hopes that B. H. S. would be especially proud of the 1951 edition. Our most glamorous event was the Prom. Once again we thrilled to the rustle of gowns, sweet music in the background and excitement in the air.

And finally, graduation!!!—the goal we have strived for these many years. Our paths will go in many directions but our thoughts will now and then stray back to the "Memories of the Class of '51".

CLASS WILL

To the future seniors the Class of '51, being of sound mind, memory, and understanding, makes the following bequests:

We, the members of the Traffic Squad, bequeath to the juniors the stampeding traffic and the traffic buttons.

The senior cheerleaders, Elaine, Marie, Marlene, Marilyn, Joan and Barbara, leave to the J. V.'s the hard to equal spots held by them this year.

Miss Brown's English students leave her "rush, rush" classes to the juniors with the hope that they will be able to keep up with her better than we did.

Willy Hafner donates his curly hair to any girl who needs it on a rainy day and he will walk away bald.

Barbara Oddo, Mary Ann Liska and Eleanor Prunty leave their seats in the Campus to Ann Brown, Camille DeFlora, and Kay Holland.

Connie Evans, Marlene Frederick, Vera Showler, and Barbara Wilken leave their broken hearts to any girls who have the misfortune of having boyfriends who join the Navy.

We, Billy Huth and Mickey Maclaure, give our much needed height to Dick Appleton and Dick Brand.

We, the twenty-five truant boys, leave our truancy and punishment to any junior boys who feel it's worthwhile to try it.

Marianne Bodenstein, Anne Flannery, and Merilyn Halligan bequeath the honor of seeing that their post is supplied with food to Mr. Claxton.

We, Marilyn Dow and Audrey Mallette, contribute our skating talents to Alice Larsen.

Johnny Drakeford passes down his athletic ability to anyone who can catch it.

The senior members of the football team bequeath their outstanding record to the team of '51.

Nadine and Vicky leave their long hair to Carole Santon and Harriet Roberts.

Joan Hirtes, Grace Gentile, and Violet Mastroberte, as twirlers, put away their batons and leave, knowing that the up-and-coming junior twirlers will carry on.

The two "Mr. Presidents", Harvie and Hargreaves, leave their responsibilities to anyone who is lucky (?) enough to be elected.

We, the senior "hot rods" leave being "souped up" to any car that can take it.

Joe Chiaradio leaves his difficult music and position as accompanist to Janet Pratt, and all the rest of the senior musicians leave their hard to fill spots in the band, orchestra, choir, and glee clubs.

In conclusion, we, the Class of '51 depart with happy memories of the happenings during our stay at B. H. S. Many of those memories would not be happy if it had not been for our four wonderful sponsors, Miss McCann, Mrs. Pembleton, Miss Rule, and Mr. Adams. They have helped us through the most difficult situations and we shall never forget them nor their unselfish attitude toward us.
